

Dear FCC:

I have been notified by Steve Carter our Attorney General for Indiana that the Consumers Bankers Association is seeking to allow unregulated calls from banks to their existing customers. First, I beleive that Indiana has an excellent law covering in-bound calls to residential homes. I do not think that it needs to be modified on a federal level.

I personally do not wish to be contacted by my bank, my credit card company, my stockbroker, my insurance company. If I have a need for financial services I will call them or go into their office. Allowing such anyoances does more harm than good as most all of these calls are sales calls for unwanted services or products.

You might ask how do I know? I have worked in the industry for a year and had to make these calls. Thanks for your time and consideration.
Sincerely,

Paul A Reese
